Sir,

Please refer to your RTI application No. MEAJD/R/E/20/00020 dated 03.05.2020 seeking information related to maintaining shelters.

2. Information available with the Post is as under:

(1)- (23) The Consulate does not maintain a shelter to house aggrieved Indian workers in Jeddah. However, if a destitute and distressed Indian female worker approaches the Consulate, seeking its help for her repatriation to India, the Consulate arranges her boarding and lodging through a polyclinic till her exit formalities are completed and she is deported to India. The duration of the stay of a female worker at the polyclinic is approximately 5 to 7 days. The expenses incurred are met from ICWF Scheme. During January, 2018 to January, 2020, the Post has provided 169 one-way air tickets to the needy Indian nationals for their safe repatriation to India.

3. If you are aggrieved by this information, you may file an appeal with Shri Md. Noor Rahman Sheikh, Consul General and the First Appellate Authority, Consulate General of India, Post Box No. 952, Tahlia Road, Jeddah 21421, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Regards,

(Dr. Mohd Aleem)
Consul (CW) & CPIO
